What does Newton Abbot College provide for young people with special educational additional needs (SEND)?

Newton Abbot College is a mainstream, inclusive Secondary school for children aged 11-18 that fully complies with the requirements set out in the Special Educational Needs Code of Practice (2014). A student has SEND where their learning difficulty or disability calls for special educational provision, namely provision different from or additional to that normally available to students of the same age. (SEND Code of Practice, 2015, p.94)

There are four broad areas of need for children with SEND. Trained and experienced staff are able to support learners who may have difficulties with

- Cognition and Learning
- Speech, Language and Communication needs, including young people on the autistic spectrum.
- Social, Emotional and Mental Health
- Sensory and/or Physical Difficulties

We make reasonable adjustments to our practices to comply with the Equality Act (2010). Children with SEND, either with or without an Education and Health Care Plan, are welcome to apply for a place in school in line with the school admissions policy. If a place is available, we will use our best endeavours, in partnership with parents, to make the provision appropriate and accessible to meet the SEN of students at this school. For children with an EHCP, parents have the right to request a particular school, and the local authority must comply with that preference and name the school or college in the EHC plan unless:

- it would be unsuitable for the age, ability, aptitude or SEN of the child or young person,
- Or the attendance of the child or young person there would be incompatible with the efficient education of others, or the efficient use of resources.

Before making the decision to name our school in a child's EHCP, the local authority will send the SENDCo a copy of the EHCP and then consider comments before a final decision on placement is made.

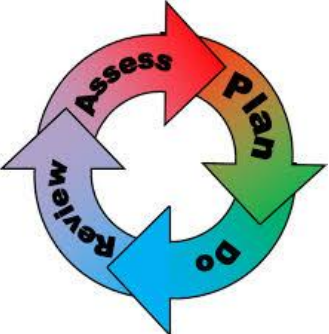

What are the policies for identifying children with SEND and assessing their needs?

There are many ways that we may identify a SEND for example:

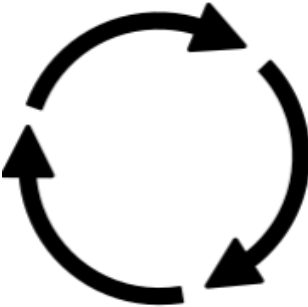

- Liaising with all primary providers and other primary schools to ensure that information on children transitioning into Newton Abbot College is shared effectively.
- Teachers carry out regular assessments, so that they can quickly identify any student who is experiencing particular difficulties.
- Parents may raise concerns about their child.
- Other professionals working with a child outside of the College may raise concerns or highlight a specific need.
- Students' own views.
- Review attendance and behaviour data.

Students have their academic progress tracked through regular assessment and reporting cycles. Where these identify concerns with academic progress, concerns will be discussed with Heads of Department and the Senior Leadership of the school and adjustments made to their provision by the relevant departments. Where these do not have the necessary impact, concerns will be passed on to the SEND Team for further investigation and support. We are likely to conclude that a student is having difficulties accessing learning if their learning is significantly behind age related expectations and/or the gap is widening.

	There may be other signs that students need additional help and support or have unidentified needs and so we also carefully monitor students' behaviour and consider how they are presenting more generally in school. For example, their social skills or emotional wellbeing, safeguarding information, attendance, health information or feedback directly from parents/carers or from the students themselves are monitored, to ensure that we consider other possible underlying symptoms or signs of additional need. We use screening tools such as reading and spelling test information; Speech and language screeners, Boxall profiling; Strengths and Difficulties Questionnaires and similar, to more precisely identify and target need.
How does Newton Abbot College evaluate the effectiveness of the provision for children with SEND? 	The Senior Leadership Team, The Quality of Education Team, Subject leaders and the SENDCo measure the effectiveness of provisions made for students as part of their monitoring cycles. This will include learning walks, student observations, student work scrutiny, data monitoring and student feedback. The effectiveness of interventions is measured on using Provision Map. Interventions will be monitored by the SEND Team and SENDCo and where necessary, appropriate additional training will be provided to staff running interventions. If a child is supported through an 'Early Help Assessment', the multi-agency team working with the child will meet at regular intervals to review progress against outcomes. All students with an EHCP will have an annual review where the progress towards outcomes and the appropriateness of provisions in Section E and F of the EHCP will be reviewed. The SENDCo reports regularly to School Governors and when invited will attend meetings and reports to the Governing Body.
What are the arrangements for assessing and reviewing children's progress towards outcomes? 	At Newton Abbot College we track and analyse student's progress at assessment points throughout the academic year. Students who require additional support are raised at weekly SEND meetings and wider fortnightly meetings with Heads of Learning, Designated Safeguard Lead, the SENDCo and members of the SEND and Inclusion Team. This helps to ensure early identification of need and provision of appropriate support for the student. Where specific needs are apparent, Newton Abbot College has a range of assessments which can be used to explore a child's strengths and difficulties in more detail. There are three broad stages of support, all which are implemented using an Assess, Plan, Do, Review cycle. The primary aim of this framework is to ensure that levels of support at an early stage, which are part of the ordinarily available inclusive provision, are implemented before a student progresses through to targeted or specialist levels of support. For a very small percentage of students, whose needs are significant and complex and the SEND Support required to meet their needs cannot reasonably be provided from within the school's own resources, a request will be made to the local authority to conduct an assessment of education, health and care needs. This may result in an Education, Health and Care (EHC) plan being issued.

What is our approach to teaching children with SEND at Newton Abbot College? 	We have a highly ambitious and broad curriculum, and we expect our SEND students to be fully involved in all lessons and extra-curricular activities. All Students, including those with special educational needs, are taught the school's knowledge rich curriculum. All students with SEND have a student passport which is shared with teachers to help support their learning helping them to access the curriculum. All teachers are the teachers of children with SEND. We passionately believe that High Quality Inclusive Teaching is a non-negotiable for every student in our School. Teachers follow the NAC lesson framework of excellence and are expected to plan, adapt and respond to the needs of the young people in front of them. There is an expectation that teachers will be aware of the learning needs of all children and will ensure that learning is coherently sequenced, scaffolded, resources provided, and passports enacted. All teaching staff and Learning Coaches are provided with information about individual students' needs via a Student Passport. These are written by the SENDCo and SEND Team and draw on information from a range of sources, usually reports from professionals, external agencies, relevant test results, previous school reports, and parent and student feedback. The Student Passport gives information about needs but also strategies which can be used in the classroom to support those needs. Teachers are expected to adapt and differentiate their teaching to suit the needs of the students in their lessons. Teachers are expected to regularly give feedback about students with SEND and this is used to inform the plan, do, review cycle, in discussion with parents, and usually, the students themselves. What would high quality targeted classroom teaching look like for my child? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Teachers would have the highest possible expectations for your child and all students in the class. • That all teaching is built on what your child already knows, can do and can understand. • Different ways of teaching are in place to ensure that your child is fully involved in all aspects of the lesson. • Specific strategies (that may be suggested by the SENDCo or professionals) are in place to support your child to learn. • Your child's teachers will have carefully checked on progress and will have decided that your child has a gap/gaps in their knowledge and need some extra support to make the best possible progress.
My child has medical needs, what can I expect?	Students with medical needs will be provided with a detailed Individual Health and Care Plan, compiled in partnership with parents, health professionals and if appropriate, the student themselves. These are shared with relevant staff. Medicines can be stored in school but must be appropriately labelled and supplied by a medical professional. Parents remain responsible for ensuring prescriptions are refilled and medicine are in date.

	We have a member of staff that coordinates Individual Health Care Plans (IHCPs). Contact can be made at: SEND@nacollege.devon.sch.uk
What is physical accessibility like at Newton Abbot College? 	Newton Abbot College is a split site school, sitting either side of a road. Access for students between school sites is via an underpass which has steps; however, level access is possible by crossing the road. We are committed to ensuring that the Newton Abbot College site is accessible to all children, although it is an old building we will always be happy to discuss individual requirements where necessary. Newton Abbot College has: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Designated disabled parking spaces in the main car park • Accessible toilet facilities • A lift • Grounds and outdoor areas are accessible for all children. Please see our Accessibility Policy for further details.
What additional support for learning is available to students with special educational needs? 	When a child has been identified with special educational needs, teachers will ensure that the child can access the curriculum appropriately using high quality inclusive teaching and a personalised learning approach. The SENDCo will liaise with external professionals where appropriate and will work with staff to ensure that every child is able to access the curriculum. If appropriate, specialist equipment may be given to the student e.g. writing slopes, pen/pencils grips or easy to use scissors, reading pens, Chromebook. Learning Coach (LC) Deployment: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ In-class shared support in core subjects (if detailed in the child's EHCP) ✓ Small group intervention including for reading, handwriting, spelling and numeracy ✓ Small group intervention including 'pre-teaching', literacy and numeracy ✓ 1:1 and small group intervention and support for communication and interaction needs ✓ 1:1 CBT style intervention and support for Speech and Language needs ✓ Intervention for EAL needs

This together with Class Charts allows data to be shared across the school with all staff. Teachers can quickly and easily see Student Passports, EHCPs, SLT plans and other key documents. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ Continual monitoring of the quality of Teaching and Learning through learning walks by the SENDCo and wider Leadership team every week. ✓ Identifying and tracking the progress of learners who required support to 'close the gap' through the work of Heads of Learning teams, Subject Team Leaders and the SEND team ✓ Identification of learners who require SEND support and initiation of the "assess, plan, do, review" cycle ✓ Use of the Education, Health and Care Needs Assessment route to ensure provision is in place throughout KS3, KS4 and KS5 when evidenced ✓ Use of the Interim Review process where necessary for students with EHCPs ✓ Engagement with the Local Authority and outside agencies in terms of advice and for additional monitoring and quality control purposes

How do we consult with children with SEND and involve them in their education?	We use a child-centred approach where the views of the child are sought in ways appropriate to their age. Class teachers, Learning Coaches and school leaders are always available to listen to children's opinions, questions and points of view. The SENDCo, Assistant SENDCos and member of the wider SEND Team spend time with individuals to gain their thoughts as part of the annual review process. SLT, the SENDCo and the wider SEND team regularly collect 'student voice' to gain insight into the 'lived experience' of young people with additional needs at Newton Abbot College. The school operates a 'you said, we did' initiative in conjunction with the school council.

How do we support transitions?

A number of processes are in place to enable effective transition. These include:

- Enhanced transition days are generally arranged for students with more complex SEND needs identified by the primary school. This may include a tour of the school, meeting the SENDCo and/or SEND support team.
- Accompanied visits and tours of the school may be arranged prior to the whole school induction days.
- Additional visits are arranged if needed Parent/carers are usually invited to a meeting at the school and are provided with a range of information to support them in enabling their child to settle into the school routine
- Key information is shared with SENDCos of feeder schools to ensure a deeper understanding of needs and student passports can be written and shared ready for the induction days.
- If students are transferring from another school mid-year, the previous school records will be requested immediately.

Transition to the next Key stage

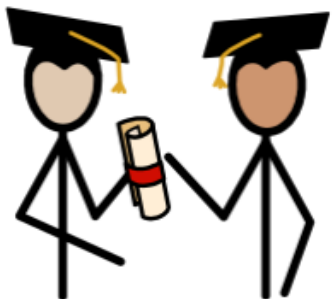

- In preparation for KS4 & KS5 students with an ECHP will have additional support in choosing their options or course pathways.
- Time is dedicated to ensuring all students are aware of their choices.

Transition to post 16

- Some students will have opportunities to visit their post 16 provision prior to starting
- Conversations with relevant post 16 support will take place for students with SEND
- Annual reviews for students in year 11 will take place in the autumn term.

Impact 2024 – 25

What has gone well this year?

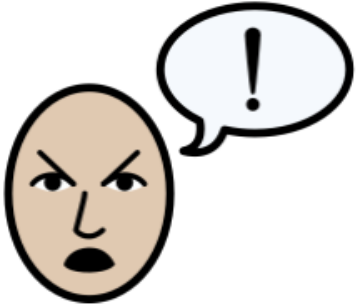

- Ofsted school inspection 2024. Good. They commented:

"The school quickly identifies the needs of students with special educational needs and/or disabilities. Teachers know students well and use their knowledge of students' individual needs to adapt the curriculum effectively. Students receive additional support when required. For example, through the recently opened Rosehill Learning Hub. As a result, the school is inclusive, and disadvantaged students learn as well as their peers."

- All SEN students are accessing our broad and ambitious curriculum which is captured through SLT and Departmental learning walks and student voice which demonstrate that children and young people feel supported and happy at NAC.
- We saw the opening of our Rosehill House SLCN provision. This has had success in supporting students with more complex need reintegrating back into school and into lessons.
- A member of the SEND Team has completed her first year on the Speech Therapy Apprenticeship Degree Programme.
- We continue to offer a range of interventions such as social skills, speech language and communication, emotional wellbeing, as well as literacy, numeracy and reading interventions. We continue to offer additional adult support in core lessons for some students.
- We have developed a Trauma and Attachment mentoring and coaching intervention.
- We have expanded our range of enrichment opportunities in response to the 'voices' of our students with additional needs, including: BSL club, singing club, Lego club and F1 club.
- Our Trust have created a SEND Professional Learning Community, seeing the development of greater links and the sharing of professional good practice across our schools.
- We have continued to develop strong links with our primary colleagues and continue to improve our transition programmes for all students. We have held an open morning for primary SENDCos which was well received.

What is the College complaints procedure?

The SEND team at NAC strive to work with our parents and carers and recognise that communication is key. We encourage our stakeholders to contact us to discuss any difficulties or concerns so we can action change before a complaint is necessary.

At Newton Abbot College anyone wishing to make a complaint regarding SEND support and provision should contact:

SEND@nacollege.devon.sch.uk

- In the first instance complaints will be forwarded to the SENDCo
- Complaints will then be shared with the Head Teacher
- When required, complaints can be escalated to the Ivy Trust SEN Governor
- The full formal complaint procedure is on the college website

Students are encouraged to talk to their tutors, teachers and/or Learning Support team if they are unhappy about an intervention or provision that they access.
