Raising a concern/complaint

If a candidate (or parent/carer) has a general concern or complaint about the centre's delivery or administration of a qualification, Newton Abbot College encourages an informal resolution in the first instance.

This can be undertaken by:

- contacting the Head of Centre with your concern or complaint who will make contact with you to discuss this further.

If a concern or complaint fails to be resolved informally, the candidate (or parent/carer) is then at liberty to make a formal complaint.

How to make a formal complaint

All documentation relating to the submission of a formal complaint is available from, and should be returned to:

- Exams Officer/Head of Centre/ Senior Leader for Exams

Formal complaints will be logged and acknowledged within:

- 48 hours to acknowledge the complaint; further 7 days to inform of next steps; final timeline to be reasonable and in line with the needs of the investigation

To make a formal complaint, candidates (or parents/carers) must:

- contact info@nacollege.devon.sch.uk stating the nature of the complaint and including relevant names and exam details.

How a formal complaint is investigated

The Head of Centre will investigate or appoint an investigation lead from the Senior Leadership Team, who is not involved in the investigation and who has no connection. Findings and conclusions will be reported.

The findings and conclusion of any investigation will be provided to the complainant within:

- a reasonable timescale, following all investigations that need to be carried out.

Internal appeals procedure

Following the outcome, if the complainant remains dissatisfied and believes there are clear grounds, an appeal can be submitted.

To submit an appeal, candidates (or parents/carers) must:

- contact info@college.devon.sch.uk

The Exams Officer/ Head of Centre/ Senior Leader for Examinations

Appeals will be logged and acknowledged within:

- 48 hours of receipt of the appeal. A further 7 days will be given to allow for next steps to be agreed.

The appeal will be referred to:

- Head of Centre/ further investigating Senior Leader not involved in the initial complaint.

It will be the responsibility of to inform the appellant of the final conclusion in accordance with the internal appeals procedure.
